Chattel Mortgage with Power of Sale.

This Indenture, Made this 30 day of July 1906, between G. W. Webster, Broken Arrow, I.T. party of the first part, and Beck & Corbitt Iron Company, St. Louis, Mo., party of the second part.

Witnesseth, That for and in consideration of the sum of Six Hundred Fifty Three and 0/100 Dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the part of the first part has bargained, sold, granted, conveyed and by these presents hereby bargains, sells and conveys to the party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns, the following described property, the title to which he guarantees to-wit: One 6 H.P. Weber gasoline engine, One # 203 1/2 Champion Drill, One Crescent Band Saw, One Little Giant trip hammer, One # 1 Champion Fan Blower, One # 13 Power Turning lathe, One Double end Wood turning lathe head and all shafting belting, pulleys, counter shafts etc. The above described machinery bought of Beck & Corbitt Iron Company, St Louis and is in G. W. Webster's Mach. smith Shop in Broken Arrow, I.T. and that the same property is all of the kind described above, owned and controlled by the mortgagor now on said premises, and the above description and enumeration being intended to cover and include not only all of said property owned by said mortgagor as above, but any additions, increase and accessions thereto are included herein. The marks and brands used above to describe said property are the ones used in description as most convenient and as the holding brands, and carry the title, although said property may have other marks or brands.

To have and to hold the same unto the party of the second part, executors, administrators and assigns forever: conditioned, however, as follows:

Whereas, The said party of the first part is indebted to the party of the second part in the sum of Six Hundred Fifty Three and 0/100 Dollars as expressed by Seven notes of even date herewith and payable as follows: One note for $100.00 Dated July 28, 1906 due September 1, 1906

One note for $100.00 " " " " " October 1, 1906

One note for $100.00 " " " " due November 1, 1906

One note for $100.00 " " " " Dec 1 1906

One note for $100.00 " " " " Jan 1 "

One note for $100.00 " " " " due Feb 1 1906

One note for $53.01 " " " " March 1st 1906

Now, If the said party of the first part shall well and truly pay to the party of the second part the sum hereinbefore mentioned and all other indebtedness which may then be due to the party of the second part by the party of the first part, together with the cost of this Trust, on or before the 1 day of March, 1907, then this conveyance shall be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect. And in the case any default shall be made in the payment of said indebtedness, as herein set forth, or shall the party of the first part (prior to the full payment of the above mentioned indebtedness) sell, attempt to sell, ship, remove or otherwise dispose of the property herein conveyed, or any part thereof without the consent of the party of the second part, or in case the party of the second part shall at any time deem selves insecure, or deem that in order to properly protect selves and secure full payment of the above mentioned indebtedness such action shall be necessary then, in either event, the party of the second part, agent or attorney, is hereby authorized and empowered to take charge of said property on demand, without process of law, and sell or dispose of the same, or as much as may be necessary, at public sale without appisement (the appisement required by law being expressly waived) at
