Contract.

Whereas, Myron E. Hicks, a widower, and Ella P. Ray, a widow, both of the City of Tulsa, Indian Territory, contemplate intermarrying, the one with the other, in the near future; and

Whereas, both the said Myron E. Hicks and Ella P. Ray own and possess, each in his or her own right, both real and personal property and may each hereafter own and possess additional property; and

Whereas, the said Myron E. Hicks has living issue of a former marriage for whom he desires to provide and whom he desires to inherit his property and to own, possess and enjoy the same free from any and all right, title, interest or claim of the said Ella P. Ray, as his surviving widow, whether by way of dower, homestead, distributive share, or in any other manner now or hereafter provided by law; and

Whereas, the said Ella P. Ray also has living issue of a former marriage for whom she desires to provide and whom she desires to take by inheritance her property, and to own, possess and enjoy the same free from any and all right, title, interest or claim of the said Myron E. Hicks, as her surviving husband, whether by way of curtesy, homestead, distributive share, or in any other manner now or hereafter provided by law;

Now, Therefore, Know All Men By These Presents, that the said Myron E. Hicks, in consideration of the premises, forward in consideration of the sum of Ten Dollars cash in hand paid to him by the said Ella P. Ray, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, in consideration of the marriage hereafter to be contracted with the said Ella P. Ray and in consideration of the covenants and agreements entered into with him by the said Ella P. Ray and hereinafter set out, doth hereby covenant and agree to and with the said Ella P. Ray, her heirs and assigns forever, that he, the said Myron E. Hicks, shall never, by virtue of such marriage and as the living or surviving husband of the said Ella P. Ray, have, acquire, assert or claim any right title, interest or estate in any property of any kind which the said Ella P. Ray shall have at the time of the solemnization of the said proposed marriage or which the said Ella P. Ray, soon to become Ella P. Hicks, shall in any manner earn or acquire during the continuance of the said marriage, either by way of homestead, curtesy, distributive share or in any other manner now or hereafter provided by law, but that all
