Tulsa, Oklahoma,
March 9th. 1923.

Board of County Commissioners,
Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Gentlemen:-

This office has been handed the last quarterly report of 1922 of A.P.Watson, Justice of the Peace, likewise his final report up to and including the month of February last, for investigation and report.

During the month of January last, complaint was made to this office of four citizens, of this city, who were charged in the Court of Justice Watson with disturbing the peace. They made the statement that Mr.Watson invited and suggested that they might give any name that was convenient, and that they gave the names of Joe Turley, Jim Hohnson and C.R.Cole. The name of the fourth man, we do not know. These men were each fined $12.50, which they paid in cash.

This office has made an examination of the County reports above referred to, also the criminal appearance docket as kept by Mr.Watson and the proceedings above stated do not appear either by the report or from the appearance docket. These four men are all willing to make an affidavit as to the above facts and can be produced in person on an hours notice.

In the light of the foregoing, I cannot recommend payment by your Board of the claim of Mr. Watson dated March 5th. 1923, for Justice of the Peace "fees earned for term of office ending February 28th. 1923, $100.00.

Respectfully,

John M.Goldesberry, H
County Attorney.
