A Public Hearing for the purpose of discussing the Petition to Release Certain Land From Rural Water District No. 3 in Tulsa County was called to order at 9:51 a.m. Selph asked if anyone was present to speak in favor of the petition. R. Robert Huff, Attorney for the petitioner, William J. Lamberton, appeared before the board and stated that Mr. Lamberton's land is adequately supplied with water purchased from Tulsa Metropolitan Water Authority and requested approval by Board to release the land described in petition from Rural Water District No. 3. Barbara Markwardt appeared and spoke against the release. She stated that only those who want to participate are charged with water taps. If Mr. Lamberton is allowed to withdraw, four properties cannot be served with water. The District cannot serve water outside of its boundaries. Rice stated an easement could help the District to service these properties. Hearing closed at 10:19 a.m.
