April 15th, 1936.

WHEREAS, it further appears to the Board of County Commissioners that subsequent to the order of forfeiture and judgment entered herein the defendant Glen Vann upon the expenditures of considerable sums of money, and at a great deal of personal inconvenience and trouble to himself caused the said H. R. Reddin to be returned to the County Jail of this county from the State of California. And that the said H. R. Reddin was subsequently tried and sentenced to a term in the penitentiary at McAlester upon the charge for which he had been held as aforesaid, and for which the said Glen Vann and E. W. Scott had become his bail. And that Tulsa County was not put to any expense whatsoever in returning the said H. R. Reddin for trial, and, it further appearing to the Board of County Commissioners that by reason of the said expenditure of time and money upon the part of said defendant, Glen Vann, and the further agreement upon the part of said Glen Vann to pay all costs in case No. 61151, and said cause No. 7253, incident to the bond forfeiture, and by reason of the fact that Tulsa County has not been out any expense in returning the said H. R. Reddin for trial, that the just and equitable thing to do is to release the said Glen Vann and E. W. Scott from the judgment heretofore rendered.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Board of County Commissioners release the said Glen Vann and E. W. Scott from said judgment, and satisfy the said judgment of record.

Dated this 14 day of April, 1936.
