

Tulsa Co., a body corporate

And it is hereby certified and recited that said county of Tulsa is a body corporate, duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the general laws of the state of Oklahoma; that all things, acts and conditions required by the Constitution and laws of the state of Oklahoma to happen and to be done and performed precedents and in the issuance of this bond and the series of which it forms a part, in order to constitute the same valid and binding obligation of said County, have happened and been properly done and performed in regular and due form and time as required by law; that the total indebtedness of said county, including this bond, does not exceed any constitutional or statutory limitation; and that due provision has been made for the collection of an annual tax on all the taxable property in said county, in addition to all other taxes, sufficient to pay the interest thereon as the same accrues and to constitute and maintain a sinking fund for the payment of the principal hereof at maturity.

In Witness Whereof, the said county of Tulsa, by its board of County Commissioners, has caused this bond to be signed by the chairman of said Board and attested by the County Clerk under the corporate seal of said county, and each of the interest coupons hereto attached to be executed by the telegraphed fac-simile signatures of said officers, this first day of December A. D. 1909.
