

of the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture, will pay One Hundred Ten Dollars ($110.00) per month on the salary of the County Agricultural Agent and will pay One Hundred Ten Dollars ($110.00) per month on the salary of the Home Demonstration Agent. The Extension Division of the A & M College also agrees to furnish all agents employed with the franking privilege for the free use of the mails in sending of agricultural publications in the County, to furnish the agents necessary stationery, instructions and printed bulletins for the use of farmers in the county, both from the college and from the United States Department of Agriculture.

SUPERVISION: The Extension Division of the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College will supervise the work of these agents, carefully looking the same to see that the work is done efficiently and in a manner to be of the largest possible benefit to the people of the country and to pay the expenses of the agents when they are authorized to attend meetings outside of the County on official business.

SPECIAL AID: The said A & M College likewise agrees to send to the county special representatives to assist these agents on special tasks, and to hold educational meetings for the benefit of farmers and to assist in every possible way in making the work of the county effective.

PAYMENT OF SALARY The Agent's salary will be payable on or after the first of each month on certificate from the agent that the work has been duly performed.

CHANGE OF AGENTS: In case of any dissatisfaction with the work of the agent, on the part of the A & M College or on the part of the County Commissioners, each shall notify the other party of such dissatisfaction, and if the dissatisfaction cannot be removed and all parties fully satisfied, said agent shall be promptly removed. If an agent is removed by agreement between the parties, another competent and satisfactory agent shall be selected to continue the work to the completion of the contract and in the same manner as originally provided.
