

Motion made by Commissioner Couch, seconded by Commissioner Bailey and unanimously carried, that the following Resolution be and the same is hereby adopted:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Elmer W. Adams, County Attorney of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, has presented to the Board of County Commissioners of Tulsa County, in session, at a regular meeting, the matter of settlement of a bond forfeiture in the case of THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA, vs. William J. Reeves, No. 57,596 Court Common Pleas, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and the Board being fully advised, finds:

That the above named defendant, charged with Unlawful Possession of Intoxicating Liquor, whose case was set for trial on May 26th, 1949, in said court, failed to appear, and after proper notice his bond was declared forfeited in the sum of $500.00; and

WHEREAS, The Surety, C. L. Ward, has offered to settle and compromise the said $500.00, bond forfeiture in the sum of $333.33, and the Board being fully advised, finds that such settlement is fair, just and equitable and should be accepted, and it is so ordered.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Elmer W. Adams, County Attorney of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, is hereby authorized to accept from the Surety, C. L. Ward, in the above styled case, the sum of $333.33, in full settlement of the bond forfeiture in said case, and the County Attorney is further authorized and directed to deduct therefrom the sum of $83.33, for his own use and benefit, as is provided by law, and is further ordered and directed to pay the balance in the sum of $250.00, into the Court Clerk of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, for the use and benefit of Tulsa County.
