

September 1, 1983
Management Conference

The New Day Pre-Trial Release Program was discussed. It was noted that the effective date of the Administrative Order from Judge Hopper is September 1, 1983. It was also noted that the program will be known as the "Pre-Trial Release Program." Mr. Reed will be asked to submit claims for travel expenses rather than receive a flat fee and employees of the program will follow all policies and procedures of Tulsa County. Employees of the program will receive a 3% pay increase as was budgeted.

Edwards will monitor the travel claims of Mr. Reed and report back to the Board in December.

Motion by Harris, seconded by Rice, to allow Pre-Trial Release Program employees use of County-owned vehicles. Upon roll call: Harris, yes; Rice, yes; Young, yes. Motion carried.

It was the consensus of the Board that a Grievance Hearing be set for Floyd Edwards the week of September 12.

Motion made by Harris, seconded by Rice, to approve and authorize the Chairman to sign an interlocal agreement between Tulsa County and Cleveland County for the purpose of printing for Cleveland County Election Board. Upon roll call: Harris, yes; Rice, yes; Young, yes. Motion carried.

Judy Stokes reported on handling of back orders. Edwards will follow this subject. Motion by Young, seconded by Harris, to direct the District Attorney to intervene in utility rate cases before the Oklahoma Corporation Commissioners as a ratepayer and in its Constitutional and statutory role as representatives of the poor and indigent of the County. Upon roll call: Harris, yes; Rice, yes; Young, yes. Motion carried.

The meeting adjourned at 4:20 p.m.
