HONORABLE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,

TULSA COUNTY, OKLAHOMA.

SIRS:

Herewith you will find a summarized statement of an audit made of the "Cash and Fee Accounty of Sheriff James Woolley for the years 1915-1916.

You will note that the total cash unaccountyed for by Sheriff Woolley for the period of time under review amounts to $3,173.35.

For your information I will state that a large percent of the cash due to the county of Tulsa, viz: ($3,001.15) is due because of a practice of the Sheriff's department failing toaccount to the County for the correct amount of fees as provided by law. On all of these questions of law that Attorney General of the State of Oklahoma has rendered opinions sustaining our positions, in brief I have followed the interpetations of the law as given by the Attorney General in all maters.

Respectfully submitted,

FRED PARKINSON
State Examiner and Inspector.

By Evans A. Nash (Signed)
Deputy State Examiner and Inspector.
