Tulsa, Oklahoma, April 30, 1922.

To the Hon. Board of County Commissioners,
Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Gentlemen:-

I am herewith submitting for your consideration a full and complete report, to date, on the progress of the audit and special services assigned to the State Examiners and Inspector's Staff in the service of your County.

ERRONEOUS ASSESSMENTS.

I am herewith transmitting to you various applications for erroneous assessments with my recommendations indorsed thereon. A number of applications have been returned to the Assessor and County Treasurer for further information. The application of J.K. Livingston will not be reported on at this time for the reason that I have not been able to make a full examination of the law involved in the application. Report will be made at your next meeting.

H J GRAY, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE AUDIT.

This audit is completed and the report typed excepting the audit letter, We are holding the report in order to permit Mr. Gray to have a conference with us on several matters. This conference will be had in a short time and then the official and approved report will be filed with you.
