Harris directed Rudd to make recommendations for reducing fleet service and submit those to the Board in one week.

Gary Cox and Jerry Cleveland were present to discuss and receive direction from the Board regarding the continuation of the Health Department's Mosquito Spraying Program. Cox informed the Board that from a public health standpoint the mosquitos don't pose health problems; rather, they are considered more of a public nuisance.

Cox explained that, in order to reduce costs, the Health Department is presently looking at various services that could be dropped and this is one of those services being considered.
