Motion was made by Commissioner Miller, seconded by Commissioner Bridges, that the County Commissioners set aside not in excess of $2,500.00 in the July budget, providing, however, the City sets aside a like amount, for the purpose of fostering Tulsa municipal gardens in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, to relieve the charity load, and that at least 50% of all supplies canned in the cannery or otherwise produced from these gardens be turned over to Tulsa County and City to be distributed among the poor now being taken care of by the County, and that all claims be signed by the party in charge of said gardens and countersigned by the Mayor of Tulsa. This motion is made subject to the FERA supplying sufficient help without cost to the County or City except supervisors and materials to operate same. Upon roll call, the following vote was taken: Miller, Yes; Bridges, Yes; Gray, No. Motion carried.
