Carrie V. Hansen, et al.
Plaintiffs,

vs.

Daniel W. Burgess, et al.
Defendants.

Order of Court.

This cause came on to be heard in its turn, and the plaintiffs being represented by their attorneys, Talley and Hamage, and the defendants being represented by C. P. Jones, the plaintiffs ask leave to file an amended complaint; leave granted, both parties consenting by their attorneys. And the Court being advised in the premises it is therefore advised, adjudged, and decreed that the prayer of the petition be granted and that Lots four (4) and five (5), and the South half (S $\frac{1}{2}$) of Lot three (3) in Block Three (3) in the incorporated town of Tulsa, be partitioned, and that Charles Robertson, Jr., and George W. Mawbray and James H. Thomas be, and are hereby, appointed commissioners to view said land and make a partition thereof, if same can be done with justice to all parties interested therein, and to make a report to this Court at its next sitting.

Done at a regular day of the September Term of the United States Court, sitting at Tulsa, I. T., on this the 26th day of September, 1906.

William R. Lawrence,
Judge of the U. S. Court Western Judicial District of the Ind. Ter.
