Personally appeared before me a Notary Public within and for the Western Judicial District, Robert Fry who being first duly sworn, says that he resides at Fry, D. T. and has resided there for forty years.

That affiant knew all the members of the Cox family of which Dan and John Cox were sons. Dan and John Cox are both dead and had no wife or children.

Their parents were both dead at the time they died and William Fleauley died after they died leaving no wife or children to affiant's knowledge.

William Fleauley lived off and on with Louisiana Minge, widow of Joseph Minge for two years, but they had no children and she is dead.

Adeline Bremer, Maggie Beaman and Nancy Alexander were the only sisters of said Dan and John Cox, and William Fleauley was the only brother.

Dan and John and Maggie and Nancy were mixed bloods, but Fleauley and Adeline were full bloods. Both parents of Dan and John and William were dead before they - the boys - died respectively.

Personally appeared before me a Notary Public within and for the Western Judicial District of the Indian Territory, Walter Stearns, who being duly sworn says that he has resided in and near Tulsa, Indian Territory for the past 9 years, and that he knew the Cox family of which Dan and John Cox were members.

That Dan and John both died single and unmarried and left no heirs only their sister Maggie Beaman, Nancy Alexander and Adeline Bremer their only sisters.

That William Fleauley, a half brother died after they died that he lived with Louisiana Minge, widow of Joseph Minge for a short time but they had no children and she is dead. Affiant does not know if they were married or not.

That William Fleauley's parents were dead at the time of his decease, that said Nancy Alexander, Maggie Beaman and Adeline Bremer were the only heirs of said three brothers as affiant believes.

Walter Stearns.
