

United States of America
 Indian Territory,
 Northern District. S.S.

Be it remembered, That this day came before me, the undersigned a Notary Public within and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory aforesaid, duly commissioned and acting as such Flora Smith Johnson to me personally well known as the person whose name appears in the within and foregoing deed of conveyance, as one of the parties grantor and stated that she had executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth, and I do hereby so certify.

And I further certify that on the same day also voluntarily appeared before me the said Samuel Johnson, husband of ^{the} said Flora Smith Johnson whose name appears upon the within and foregoing deed, to me well known as such person, and in the absence of his said wife, declared that he had of his own free will, executed said deed, and signed and sealed the relinquishment of entry in the foregoing deed for the consideration and purposes therein contained and set forth, without compulsion or undue influence of his said wife, and I do hereby so certify.

Witness my hand and seal as such Notary Public, on this 18th day of February, 1907.

(seal) Northern District, D.T.

O. A. Smith, Notary Public

My commission expires Dec. 4, 1909.
