

South, is to be and shall be a party or partnership wall, and the said C. H. Hatcher, Jr., now and possess the portion of said wall that rests on or occupies his, said Hatcher's land, except that portion at East end of said building to a point eighty (80) feet West from the East end of said building and that rest on or above the first or lower story shall remain the property of the said C. P. Alexander and the said C. P. Alexander shall have the full and unmolested enjoyment of the same for his, the said C. P. Alexander's, adjoining building on the South for and during the life of either or both buildings or until one or both may be destroyed by fire or the elements without any cost or claim for damages on the part of the said C. H. Hatcher, Jr., his heirs or assigns against the said C. P. Alexander, his heirs and assigns.

This March 25, 1907.

C. H. Hatcher, Jr.
C. P. Alexander.

United States of America,
Indian Territory
Western Judicial District. ss.

On this day before me, a Notary Public in and for the District and Territory above named, personally appeared C. H. Hatcher, Jr., and C. P. Alexander, who upon oath stated that they had executed the above and foregoing contract for the purposes and considerations therein contained and set forth, and I hereby so certify. This the 25th day of March, 1907.
(real) Western District, Ind. Ter.

Geo. W. Davis, Notary Public.

My commission expires September 18-1910.

Filed for Record Apr. 26, 1907 at 10 a.m.

Otto Lorton.

Deputy U. S. Clerk and Ex-Officio Rec.