On this day came before me the undersigned, a Notary Public within and for the District and Territory of Nevada, duly commissioned and acting as such, J. H. Brown, to me personally well and made oath that he is the President of the Nevada Cattle Company, and that he signed the foregoing and caused the seal of said company to be attached to said oath by order of the Board of Directors to said company; that the said oath attached in the genuine seal of said company; and also came E. J. Treadwell, to me well known, and made oath that he is the Secretary of said company, that he attached the seal of said company to said deed by order of the President and Board of Directors, and both the said J. H. Brown and E. J. Treadwell acknowledged that they and the said Nevada Cattle Company had executed said deed for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal as such Notary Public in the said District and Territory of Nevada, on this 6th day of February, A.D. 1907.

My commission expires Jan. 19, 1907.
