

going conveyance for the considerations and purposes therein mentioned and set forth.

And I further certify that the said Emma D. Probeck, wife of the said Geo. R. Probeck, to me well known as the party signing the foregoing conveyance, and in the absence of her husband declared she had, of her own free will, signed the relinquishment of dower and Homestead for the purposes therein contained and set forth without compulsion or undue influence of her husband, and I so certify.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 18th day of July A.D. 1913.

Walter L. Renshaw, Notary Public.
