

United States of America,

Western District of Indian Territory, ss.

On this, the 5th day of January, 1907, before me personally came W. D. Borneau, the secretary of the Tulsa Foundry and Machine Company, with whom I am personally acquainted, and who, being by me duly sworn, did depose and say; That he resides in the district and territory aforesaid, and is the secretary of the Tulsa Foundry and Machine Company, a corporation, described in and which executed the foregoing deed; that he knew the corporate seal of said Tulsa Foundry and Machine Company; that the seal affixed to the foregoing deed was such corporate seal and was so affixed by order of the board of directors, and that he attested the same by subscribing his name to the same as secretary of said company, by like order; and the said W. D. Borneau further said that he was acquainted with Ed. C. Reynolds, and knew him to be the president of the said Tulsa Foundry and Machine Company, and that the signature of the said Ed. C. Reynolds, subscribed to the foregoing deed, was the hand writing of the said Ed. C. Reynolds, and was subscribed by like order of the board of directors of the said Tulsa Foundry and Machine Company, and in the presence of him, the said W. D. Borneau.

(seal) Western District of I. T.
