

remedies hereunder are cumulative and no agreement or provisions herein contained shall be construed as derogatory of any statutory right or privilege of said mortgagee; and that each and every grant, assignment, reservation, covenant, condition, power, privilege provision and clause herein contained shall inure to the benefit and be obligatory upon the heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns of said mortgagee and of said mortgagee respectively.

In Testimony Whereof, the said mortgagee hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
 signed, sealed, and delivered in Presence of.

Arthur R. Perryman, (red)
 Daisy G. Perryman (red)

United States of America,
 Indian Territory,
 Western District. ss.

On this 8th day of April, 1907, before me personally came Arthur R. Perryman, and Daisy G. Perryman, his wife, to me personally known to be the persons described in, and who executed the foregoing mortgage, and acknowledged that they executed the same as their free act and deed.
 (red) Western Dist. I.T.

My commission expires Sept. 17th, 1910.

Claude F. Ingley,
 Notary Public Western District

Filed for record April 12, 1907 at 4:25 P.M.

Olis Linton

Deputy U.S. Clerk & Ex. Officer Rec.