Personally appeared before me, a notary public, in and for the Western District of Missouri, who having been sworn in the above and foregoing deed of trust, and attested that he had executed the same for the purposes and considerations therein set forth of his own free act and deed.

And also appeared before me Marion C. Latham, wife of said E. Miller, Latham, and in the absence of her said husband attested that she had of her own free will, executed said deed of trust, and that she signed and sealed the foregoing instrument of the same and forwarded no other appearing for the purposes and considerations therein set forth without any consultation or undue influence of her said husband.

And also appeared before me, Carrie V. Latham, who being by me sworn on oath and also appeared before me U. C. Latham, husband of said Carrie V. Latham, who being by me sworn on oath, and foregoing deed attested that he signed and sealed the above and foregoing deed of trust relinquishing all his right of entry or possibility of entry, for the purposes and considerations therein contained and set forth, of his own free will and accord.
