

I, J. J. Cornelius, Indian Territory, hereby state that on September 25, 1903, I was married to Mrs. Cornelius, that on or about the last of March, 1905, I was deserted by my husband, the said Mrs. Cornelius; that since said last mentioned date I have been compelled to support myself; that I have been unable since the birth of my child to properly care for said child as I should; that I am well acquainted with Ed Redbird and with Jesse Redbird, and Jesse Redbird being my sister; that I know both of said parties to be of good reputation and I further know that they are able and capable of taking care of and protecting said child better than I could in the present circumstances.

Therefore, having full knowledge of the nature, the obligation and the financial condition of the donor herein and in consideration of the care, custody, love and affection accorded by said donor to my said child, do by these presents give and grant unto the said Ed Redbird and Jesse Redbird as their heirs and assigns the said child to be their and to take their name and to be subject to their control the same as if said child were of their own blood. And, further, I do hereby renounce forever all right, title, possession of and control over said child and do substitute the said donor for myself, the said donor to have as complete control over said child as I have heretofore, as father of said child, had.
 Furthermore, it is my desire that said child be accepted, as an heir of said donor, and I do hereby expressly renounce, relinquish and abandon all right which I may have or might hereafter acquire as heir of said child under the laws of the Indian Territory or under the laws of any other Territory, state or country and do hereby expressly and unequivocally declare that I am forever bound by the terms of this instrument.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name this, the same day of May, 1906

J. J. Cornelius.

Ed of Ed. J.

To Jesse Cornelius
 and Jesse Redbird

P.D. m.
 P.M.
 COL
 COL
 COL
 C.L.