We, R. E. Lynch and W. H. Manes, state on oath that we are Citizens of the Western District, of the Indian Territory, and residents of the City of Tulsa, in said District and Territory.

That we know and are acquainted with James E. Cummings to whom a Patent Deed was issued by the Creek Nation to Lot Three (3) in Block Eighty-six of the City of Tulsa, that the abstract to said Lot Three (3) shows that when said James E. Cummings conveyed said Lot Three (3) to W. H. Manes, he conveyed same as "J. E. Cummings", and that said James E. Cummings and said J. E. Cummings are one and the same person.

That we know and are acquainted with the wife of W. H. Manes and that her true and correct name is Lillie Manes, and that in the conveyance as shown by the abstract of said above described property, from W. H. Manes and wife, conveying said property to M. J. Pommie and R. N. Bynum, Mrs. Manes is spelled "Mellie Manes and Lillie Manes" by mistake, and that they are one and the same person.

That we know and are acquainted with R. N. Bynum and that the "R. N. Bynum" to whom said Lot was conveyed on the 12th of April, 1905, and the R. N. Bynum, who conveyed said property to R. E. Lynch on the 20th day of April, 1905, are one and the same person.
