

the children of my deceased sister Anna Coggeshall the following sums, to Nora E. Bales four hundred and fifty Dollars 450^{00} . to Guy R. Coggeshall, four hundred and fifty Dollars (450^{00}) ; to Clarence D. Coggeshall four hundred and fifty dollars (450^{00}) ; to Eva M. Coggeshall four hundred and fifty ^{dollars} (450^{00}) ; to Ralph O. Coggeshall four hundred and fifty ^{dollars} (450^{00}) and to Stacie A. Coggeshall four hundred and fifty dollars (450^{00}) and in the event of either of the said last-named nephews and nieces should be under the age of twenty one years when I die, then I desire my sister Jane L. Stiggleman to hold the same in trust for them and to pay them the amount due them at the time they reach full age.

Item 5 I give, bequeath and devise to my sister Jane L. Stiggleman as trustee the sum of Twenty-eight hundred Dollars (2800^{00}) which sum I desire her to invest, as she sees fit and during the life time of my brother Frederick W. Lyman to pay him semi annually the net proceeds of such investment after paying taxes and other expenses. It is my desire that no part of said income should go to pay any of the debts of my said brother Frederick W. Lyman and if his interest in the same should be levied upon or attached then I desire the said trustee to use the same for the benefit of himself and family, and at the death of the said Frederick W. Lyman I desire that said trust shall terminate, and that out of the principal sum of 2800^{00} the said trustee shall first pay to each of the children of the said Frederick W. Lyman the sum of Four Hundred and Fifty Dollars (450^{00}) a piece, and that the balance of the said sum of 2800^{00} shall be divided between the living children of my said sister Anna M. Coggeshall and my said brother Frederick W. Lyman share and share alike.

I desire that my said sister Jane L.
