

and exclusive trustee without bond of all my real and mixed property and the rents and profits therefrom of which I am seized and possessed or to which I am in any manner entitled or to which I — hereafter may become entitled or possessed of or any which I am interested in with others either before or after my death and any and all equities to which I am now entitled or in which I am now interested or to which I may hereafter become entitled, subject only to the trust hereinafter set forth and expressly imposed free from implication and intendment given my said trustee all and every authority and power which may be necessary and proper in the full and unhampered execution of the objects of this trust.

For and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar from my said wife receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by me and of my said wife Edith Scott assuming in writing the duties and obligation of this trust and of other good and valuable consideration moving from my said wife Edith Scott to me, I do hereby and by these presents bargain, sell, grant and convey unto my said wife Edith Scott and unto her heirs and successors under this trust forever the following described property, said property being within the Creek Nation Western Judicial District of the Indian Territory and being respectively the "allotments of Archie Scott my mother Andy Scott my brother, Lou Scott my niece and Ida Scott my niece, excluding however, from the operation of this instrument the west half of the north west quarter of section thirty three of township nineteen north of Range twelve east Indian Meridian and the west one half of the north east quarter of section eight of township nineteen north of Range seven east Indian Meridian embracing one hundred and sixty acres more or less.