

with your salesman except those herein stated.

Signature Adcock & Quisenberry
address: Tulsa Ind Ter
By L.C.A.

I agree to insure said goods the loss, if any payable to the St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co., as their interest may appear and to keep the same insured until all payments are made. This order cannot be countermanded and this is fully understood by the signer.

Tulsa Indian Territory March 1, 1907.

The St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co. has this day sold and delivered to the undersigned the property and chattels as described in order of February 9, 1907 (a copy of which is heron endorsed and marked "Exhibit A," upon the terms therein mentioned. To secure the deferred payments described in said order the undersigned hereby conveys unto the said St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co., all right, title and interest in and to said chattels, to have and to hold the same until said indebtedness is paid.

And in consideration of such agreement the said St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co. hereby permits the undersigned to hold said chattels for them and to enjoy the use of the same at Tulsa, Indian Territory on the following conditions: If any one of said deferred payments is not made when due, or in case said property is sold or attempted to be sold, removed or attempted to be removed from above named place without the written consent of the St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co., or the same is seized by process of law, then the St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co., is to have and is hereby conceded the right to take said property into its possession without demand or legal writ for that purpose, authority