

is given to its officers, agents and employees to enter the premises where said chattels may be located without legal process and carry said chattels away.

If for any of the foregoing reasons said property is retaken by the St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co., under the terms of this instrument, it may repair and store the same at the expense of the undersigned, and if not redeemed within thirty days it may sell the same at private sale in the regular course of business, or at public sale having first given ten days notice of the time, terms, and place, of sale by posting handbills in the city or township where the sale is to take place in at least three public places therein and by inserting a brief advertising card one or more times, in some local newspaper of general circulation and at such sale the said St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co., is authorized to buy said property. Said St. Louis Carbonating and Manufacturing Co., shall pay over the proceeds of such sale to the undersigned after deducting therefrom all sums still owing on account of the above deferred payments, together with all reasonable charges and expenses attending the recovery, repair, storage and sale of said property including court costs and attorney's fees.

Witness our hands and seals this 8th day of March 1907

Adcock & Queenberry

Signed in presence of
L. W. Marr Jr.,

By L.C.A.

U. S. America

Western District

Ind. Ter.

{ ss. Adcock and Queenberry by L. C. Adcock, one of the firm, acknowledges the execution of foregoing instrument before the undersigned Notary Public this 8-8-1907 L. W. Marr

(Notary Seal)
Notary Public

Notary Public

My Commission Expires June 15 1910
Filed for record in my office Mar 8 1907 at 4:20 o'clock PM in record 13 page 82. Olin Horton Dep. U.S. Clerk & Office Rec.