 Plaintiff vs. Chauncey A. Owen, Guardian of Addie Owen et al, Defendants. Equity No 6823

Order of Court

Now on this 26th day of March 1907, being one of the regular days of the January Term of said Court, coming on to be heard the above entitled cause upon the pleadings and the report of the Master in Chancery, Clark Etindel, Esquire, and it appearing to the Court that the plaintiff is a duly authorized corporation existing by virtue of the laws in force in the Indian Territory, and as such is entitled to be heard in this Court.

And it further appearing that Chauncey A. Owen is the regularly and duly appointed guardian of the minor defendants herein and that all defendants have been duly and properly summoned in this cause and have entered their appearance and made answer herein through George H. Butte their attorney, and have filed exceptions to the report of the Master in Chancery, which exceptions have been heretofore overruled.

And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Clarence Owen, deceased was a citizen by blood of the Creek Nation, who died intestate August 24, 1899 leaving neither wife, nor issue, and that there had been allotted to the heirs of Clarence Owen deceased, and sold issued therefor by the Creek Nation the following land to wit: NW 1/2 of NE 1/2 of SE 1/4, the SE 1/2 of SW 1/4 of SE 1/4 of
