

Younkman, to me known as one of the grantors in the foregoing deed, and stated that he had executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth.

And on the same day voluntarily appeared before me, Alice Younkman, the wife of the said M. W. Younkman, to me well known, and in the absence of her said husband, declared that she had of her own free will, executed said deed and signed and sealed the relinquishment of dower and homestead in said deed for the consideration and purposes therein contained, without compulsion or undue influence of her said husband.

Witness my hand and seal as such Notary Public on this 24th day of May 1906.
