

Mr. Stille Jr.
to Albany, N.Y.

The document was introduced into the 17th. day of July with the name of a manuscript and is by me between

[illegible]

At St Remond, that in the days we have spent, the main topic of the northern journalist's interest of the day was the English & Anglo-American and nothing else, and still so, to my great regret
I never saw of the English greater room within the foregoing field of conversation, and still that the result of the same for the conversation and improvement of our party and the body as a whole.

(My commission expires Jan 29, 1910.)
Notary Public.
Filed for Record June 30, 1906, at 5:13 a.m.
Chas. Eaton
Deputy Clerk and Recording Recorder

1. The first step in the process of the investigation is the identification of the problem. This is done by the investigator who is responsible for the investigation. The investigator must identify the problem and the scope of the investigation. The investigator must also identify the objectives of the investigation and the methods to be used. The investigator must also identify the resources available for the investigation.

100-443887-100