

Lewis Kulsom to me personally well known to be the person whose name appears upon the within and foregoing deed of conveyance, and, in the absence of her said husband, declared that she had of her own free will executed said deed and signed and sealed the relinquishment of dower and homestead therein expressed, for the purposes therein contained and set forth, without compulsion or undue influence of her said husband.

Witness my hand and seal as such notary public on this 25th day of September, 1906.

(Seal) Illegible.

Aurelius H. Jones,

My commission expires June 16, 1907.

Notary Public.

United States of America, Indian Territory, Western Judicial District, 33.

Be It Remembered, that on this day came before me, the undersigned a notary public, within and for the Western Judicial District of Indian Territory aforesaid, duly commissioned and acting as such, Walter Kulsom to me personally well known as one of the parties grantor in the within and foregoing deed of conveyance, and stated that he executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth, and I do hereby so certify.

And I further certify that on this day also voluntarily appeared before me the said Carrie Kulsom, wife of said Walter Kulsom to me personally well known to be the person whose name appears upon the within and foregoing deed of conveyance, and, in the absence of her said husband, declared that she had of her own free will executed said deed and signed and sealed the relinquishment of dower and homestead therein expressed, for the purposes therein contained and set forth, without compulsion or undue influence of her said husband.

Witness my hand and seal as such notary public on this 25th day of September, 1906.
