Affidavit

Western Judicial District, Indian Territory, United States of America, ss.

We the undersigned first being duly sworn according to law state that we are each of lawful age and residents of Tulsa, Ind. Ter. That we were personally well acquainted with A. J. Perryman, deceased, who was the wife of Legas W. Perryman, and the mother of Henry W. Perryman. That the said A. J. Perryman was also known as Jennie Perryman, that the name Jennie Perryman was the English name and that A. J. Perryman and Jennie Perryman are one and the same person, A. J. Perryman being her Indian name. Affiants further state that they were personally well acquainted with her for a period of 15 years, and know positively that she was identified by both the foregoing names, and that she was the wife of Legas W. Perryman. And that she left surviving her Henry W. Perryman her son and Legas W. Perryman her husband, her sole heirs at law.

Robert E. Lynch,

Saml. W. Davis.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 27th day of July 1906.
