

I further certify that I then and there openly and publicly struck off and sold the same to the said John L. Mitchell and John C. McCree the execution plaintiffs, for the aggregate sum of $744 12; that the said purchasers were the highest bidders for said property and the price for which said property was so sold as aforesaid, was the highest price bid and that the whole price so bid was the amount of the judgment and costs, obtained by said purchasers, together with costs of execution and sale and that said price was paid by said purchasers, by endorsing their receipt for said amount upon said execution.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the 24th day of August, 1907.
