

the parties of the first party hereby agree to accept such sum as full consideration and payment for such yearly delay until one well shall be commenced, and a failure to commence one well to make any of such payments within such time and place as above mentioned renders this lease null and void, and without party thereto shall be held to any second liability otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue. It is understood by and between the parties hereto that the term of this lease shall extend to and the funding upon their share, executor administrators, successors and assigns. And I, wife of said known in consideration of the foregoing promises, do hereby release and relinquish unto the said part of the second party, all of my right of dower and homestead in and to the above described premises for the purpose of the foregoing lease. For witness whereof, We the said parties of the first part and second part, have hereunto set our hands the day and year first above written.

Be it remembered, That on the 7 day of Jan 1908 personally appeared before me the undersigned, a duly commissioned, qualified and acting Notary Public in and for the Territory and district aforesaid J. S. Dilly true well known as the lessor in the foregoing lease and stated that he had executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned, and set forth and subscribed, as a witness, and of further verify that on the same day instantaneously appeared before me, to me well known as the wife of said lessor, and in the absence of her said husband, of her own free will, declared that she had executed the foregoing lease and had signed and executed the accompanying instrument of dower and homestead.
