

in the payment of said indebtedness as herein set forth or should the Party of the First Part (prior of the full payment of the indebtedness as herein set forth) sell, attempt to sell, ship remove or otherwise dispose of the property herein conveyed, or any part thereof without the consent of the said Party of the Second Part, or in case the said Party of the Second Part shall deem herself insecure, or deem that, in order to protect herself and secure full payment of the above mentioned indebtedness such action shall be necessary, then, in either event, the Party of the Second Part her agent or attorney is hereby authorized and empowered to take charge of said property on demand, without process of law, and sell and dispose of the same or so much thereof as may be necessary, at public or private sale without appraisement (appraisement by law hereby being expressly waived) for cash in hand, upon two week notice notice in some newspaper published in the Western District of the Indian Territory, or by written notices posted in five conspicuous places near the property, at which sale any of the parties hereto may purchase as other parties, and out of the proceeds of the sale the said Party of the Second Part to retain the sum due her as herein set forth and the cost of this trust and sale, rendering the over plus if any to the said Party of the First its successors or assigns.

In witness whereof The Right Way Laundry Company has by resolution of its Board of Directors caused this instrument to be signed by its President, attested by its Secretary all on the day and year just above written.

(Corp. Seal)

Attest.

G. E. Bender Secretary

The Right Way Laundry Company
By J. D. Bender

President

United States of America, Indian Territory Western District,

Now on this 11th day of September 1907 before me personally came G. E. Bender, the Secretary of The Right Way Laundry Company, with whom