

W. P. Pabor and wife Annie Pabor, in addition to the above described real estate, have this day bargained and sold and do hereby transfer to the said E. D. Sears, the following described Personal Property, located on the Edith Durant land in Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, to-wit:

One iron grey mare/mule, seven years old named Bird weight 1000 pounds, no brands, being the mule raised by the said W. P. Pabor.

One bay mare mule named Kate, seven years old, weight about 1050 pounds, being a mule raised by the said W. P. Pabor.

Also one gray horse 18 years old, named Diamond, raised by the said W. P. Pabor.

Also one gray mare 12 years old, named Poppy, weight about 1000 pounds, no brands, being the mare purchased from J. W. Pabor.

Also one bay mare, nine years old, named Nell weight about 750 pounds, branded "O" on left shoulder, being the mare purchased from Ollie Gaylor.

Also one bay mare, 16 years old, named Doll, weight about 700 pounds, branded "H. O. W." on the neck, being a mare purchased from Ollie Gaylor.

Also one dark iron grey horse, four years old, named "Sandy", weight about 1100 pounds, no brands, said horse was raised by the said W. P. Pabor.

Also one bay colt one year old, named "Ribbon".

Also one red cow, four years old, named "Red", no brands, purchased from Henry Bearden.

Also one red heifer, two years old, named "Cherry", no brands, bought from Henry Bearden.

Also one red calf one year old named "Pilot".

Also two riding cultivators, one riding culty plow, one steel harrow, two disc slides, one riding gutter,