

Heart — True and ardent, forever.

very efficient and administrative, her servants grow, bargain and agree, to act with the regard of the need, first, his fair and original, that at the time of the evangelizing and delivery of these presents he is well engaged if the premises were conveyed, or of a good, more, what abstracts are in difficult state of relations in them, in the simple, and the good right, full power, and transfer authority to grant, conveying well and convey the same in manner and form of service, and that the same are free and clear from all former ^{and other} grants, bargains, sales, leases, taxes, covenants and encumbrances of that kind or rather however and the above fragments furnish, in the grant, and necessarily, for reasons of the said party of the reserve part, his heirs and and finally obtaining a claim thereon and part thereof; the said party of the first part shall and will permit and forever release and the said party of the first ^{party} hereby offering witness and release any and all right, benefit, privilege, advantage and specimens, under or by virtue of any -and all - States of the State of California providing for the expenditure of money from state or operation or otherwise, and in the interim, the said party of the first part have themselves written and sent me, the day and year last above written

John F. Kennedy

W. B. Smith
J. B. Smith
J. B. Smith