ss.

Be It Remembered, that on this the 27th day of May, A.D. 1907, personally appeared before me the undersigned, George W. Greenland and R. W. Eggleston, to me personally well known as the persons whose names and signatures appear upon the within and foregoing deed of conveyance and to me personally well known to be the president and secretary, respectively, of the Ditcher Oil Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the United States in force in the Indian Territory, and stated to me that they executed the within and foregoing instrument and signed the same as such president and secretary respectively by authority and under the direction of the Board of Directors of the aforesaid corporation as the free and voluntary act and deed of the said corporation, for the purposes and consideration therein mentioned and set forth, and that the seal applied thereto in the corporate seal of said corporation and that the same is therewith affixed under and by authority and direction of the Board of Directors of said corporation; and I do hereby so certify. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my notarial seal at Muskogee, Indian Territory, the day and year first above written.
