Dickason Goodman Lumber Company,

To

Deed of Release.

J. B. Belford.

Whereas on the ninth day of December, 1902 J. B. Belford, by his certain deed of trust recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in the Western District of the Indian Territory at Lawful, D.I., in Book "C", Page 248, conveyed to the Dickason Goodman Lumber Company, a corporation, the following described Real Estate situated in the Western District of the Indian Territory to-wit: The following described lot, tract or parcel of land located in the town of Tulsa, Creek Nations, Indian Territory, namely: Lots six (6), in Block two hundred and three (203), according to the official survey.

Whereas, said J. B. Belford has fully discharged and satisfied said note and is entitled to release of said deed of trust.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the payment of the said indebtedness, said Dickason Goodman Lumber Company, a corporation, does by its successors and assigns, Dickason Goodman Lumber Company, release and quit claim the above described Real Estate and every part thereof unto said J. B. Belford, his heirs and assigns forever, and does hereby satisfy, discharge and cancel said deed of trust and lien in effect thereof.

In Witness Whereof, the said Dickason Goodman Lumber Company has caused this instrument to be signed by its Vice President in the absence of its President, attested by its Secretary, and its corporate seal hereunto affixed this 19th day of April, 1906.

(Corporate Seal)
