

United States of America, Indian Territory, Western District,

On this day, before me a notary public with in and for the foregoing Western District, Indian Territory of said, duly commissioned and acting appeared in person before me J. K. Roach to me personally well known as the person whose name appears upon the within and foregoing deed of conveyance, as one of the party grantors, and stated to me that he had executed the same for the purpose and consideration therein mentioned and set forth, as his free voluntary act and deed, and I have certified.

And I further certify that on the same day voluntarily appeared before me, Estella M. Roach, wife of the said J. K. Roach, and personally well known to me as the person who joined in the execution of the within and foregoing deed, in making this conveyance, and in the absence of her said husband, stated and declared to me that she had of her own free will executed the same, for the purposes and consideration therein contained and set forth, without undue influence of her said husband.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office as such Notary Public, at the town of Tulsa, this the — day of November, 1906.

(Seal) Illegible.

B. S. Pettus,

Be it remembered, that on this the 14 day of November 1906 personally appeared before the undersigned Notary Public, and after having been duly sworn, deposes and says: that he is a Creek Indian Roll No. 723, that his mother was Alice Gibson, Roll No. 5754 and was formerly the wife of Ben Deland, an Indian whose Roll No. is 5575. That Alice Gibson died Sep. 3, 1904. That Ben Deland above named had but two children. That their names were Hattie (Hattie) and Hansen Deland. That Hattie Deland died May 12, 1903, and Hansen died Nov. 14, 1902. That Ben Deland died about Feb 19, 1902. The exact date being set down in a book at the home of affiant.

That Ben Deland was never married after having been married to the mother of affiant, which occurred about 20 years ago near where the undersigned Emma Perryman now lives.

The deponent further says that Ben Deland above named never left but one sister. That he never had but one sister, and her name was Millie and became the wife of Andrew Wiley, and has been dead several years, that Ben Deland had no brothers nor any other near him except the above named to, to the best belief of the affiant.

Emma Perryman.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14 day of Nov.
