

Indiana Secretary,
West. District, 3rd.

On this 31st day of March, in the year 1906, before me personally came Adrain S. Horck, the Secretary of the Republican Printing Company, with whom I am personally acquainted, who, being by me duly sworn, did depose and say:

That he recited in detail, in plain English, and was the Secretary of the Republican Printing Company, the Corporation described in and which executed the foregoing Mortgage; that he knew the Corporate Seal of said Corporation; that the Seal affixed to the foregoing Mortgage was such Corporate Seal and was so affixed by order of the Board of Directors of the said the Republican Printing Company, and that he attested to the same by subscribing his name to the said Mortgage as the Secretary of said Corporation by the like order.

And the said Adrain S. Horck further said that he was acquainted with Myron Boyle and knew him to be the President of the said the Republican Printing Company; that the signature of the said Myron Boyle subscribed to said Mortgage was in the genuine hand-writing of the said Myron Boyle, and was thereunto subscribed by the order of the Board of Directors of the said the Republican Printing Company, and in the presence of him the said Adrain S. Horck, (Said) Western District of S. I.
