Know All Men By These Presents: That J. H. Thompson, of Catoosa, Indian Territory, for and in consideration of the sum of Nine Hundred ($900.00) Dollars, to him in hand paid by the First National Bank of Tulsa, Indian Territory, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, does hereby give, grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the said First National Bank of Tulsa, its successors and assigns, forever, the following described goods, chattels, property and crops, to wit:

1 brown mare, nine years old
1 sorrel horse, eleven years old
1 gray horse, eleven years old
1 bay mare, four years old
1 bay horse, seven years old
1 sorrel horse, eight years old
1 brindle cow, five years old
1 black cow, five years old
1 bull calf
1 Springfield farm Wagon
1 Lansing farm Wagon
2 sets of double harness

and all farm implements, the above described property being now situated on my lease on the Lizzie Sealy place, said farm being located ten (10) miles east of Tulsa, Indian Territory, and also on my lease on the McIntosh place, said farm being located ten (10) miles east and one half (1/2) miles south of Tulsa, Indian Territory, also all of my interest in all the crops planted, or to be planted and grown by me or my tenants, or lessees, or employes during during the year 1902, upon the farm generally known as the Lizzie Sealy place, ten (10) miles east of Tulsa, Indian Territory, and also on the farm generally known as the McIntosh place, ten (10) miles east and one half (1/2) mile south of Tulsa, Indian Territory, the same consisting of not less than one hundred fifty (150) acres of corn.

To have and to hold all the said goods, chattels, property and crops unto the said mortgagee herein named, and its successors and assigns, and its and their sole use and behoof forever, and said mortgagor herein, for his heirs, administrators and executors, does hereby covenant to and with the said mortgagee, its successors and assigns that the said mortgagor is lawfully possessed of said goods and chattels, and that they are his own property, and that the same are free from all incumbrances, and that he will warrant and defend the same to the mortgagee, its successors and assigns, against all lawful claims of all persons, conditioned, however as follows.

Whereas, the said J. H. Thompson, mortgagor, is indebted to the said First National Bank of Tulsa in the sum of Nine Hundred ($900.00) Dollars, on account as expressed by one promissory note, of even date and due eight (8) months after date, now, if the said J. H. Thompson, mortgagor, shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid to said First National Bank of Tulsa the sum hereinbefore mentioned and all other indebtedness which may then be due the said First National Bank of Tulsa by the mortgagor as herein provided, on or before the date the same becomes due and payable, and not violate, or suffer to be violated any of the conditions hereinafter contained then this obligation is void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

And conditioned and provided further, that in case any default shall be made in the payment of said indebtedness, as herein set forth, or any part thereof, or the said property, or any part thereof should be attached, or said property claimed by any person or persons whatever, upon any pretence, or should the mortgagor, or any one else, attempt to carry off, conceal, make way, sell or in any manner dispose of said property, or any part thereof, without the authority of the said First National Bank of Tulsa, in writing, expressed, or if the said mortgagor shall fail to plant or cultivate in a husbandlike manner the amount and kind of crops hereinbefore set forth, at the place herein set forth, or any part thereof, then, and in either event, upon the breach of said conditions, or either of them,
