the proceeds of such sale pay the expenses of taking, keeping, advertising and selling said property, including a reasonable attorney's fee therefor, and all prior liens thereon, and apply the residue upon such one or more of the above described notes, or any renewal thereof as said mortgage may see fit, rendering the surplus if any, unto the said mortgagors their heirs, or assigns. The seizure or sale of any part of said property, if insufficient to pay all the indebtedness hereby secured, shall be without prejudice to the right of said mortgage to thereafter seize & sell the residue of said property, or any part thereof. It is expressly stipulated that the mortgage may purchase at any sale under this mortgage, whether pursuant to decree or under the power of sale herein provided.

In witness whereof the said mortgagors have hereunto set their hands & seals this First day of May, A.D. 1907.
