On this 1st day of June A.D., 1907, before me, Henry L. Reed, a Notary Public within and for the Western District Indian Territory, aforesaid, appeared in person J. J. Buck and Bella Buck his wife to me personally well known as the persons whose names appear upon the within and foregoing conveyance as the parties grantor, and stated that they had executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth, and acknowledged the execution thereof as their free act and deed, and I do hereby so certify.

And on the same day, ^{also} voluntarily appeared before me the said Bella Buck wife of the said J. J. Buck to me well known, and in the absence of her said husband, declared that she had of her own free will signed and sealed the relinquishments of dower and homestead in the foregoing conveyance for the purpose therein contained and set forth, without compulsion or undue influence of her said husband. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and official seal as such Notary Public in the Western District as aforesaid, on the 1st day of June A.D. 1907.
