

The first part will pay said principal and interest at the times when the same shall due and at the place and in the manner provided in said note, and will pay all taxes and assessments against said land when the same are due each year, and will not commit or permit any waste upon said premises, that the buildings and other improvements thereon shall be kept in good repair and shall not be destroyed or removed without the consent of the second party, and shall be kept insured for the benefit of the said second party or its assignee, against loss by fire or lightning for not less than Four Hundred Dollars in form and company's satisfaction to said second party, and that all policies and renewal receipts shall be delivered to said second party. Of the title to the said premises be transferred, said second party is authorized as agent of the first party to assign the insurance to the grantee of the title.

Parties of the first part and their heirs, executors, administrators and assignees will warrant the quiet enjoyment of the aforesaid premises to the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators and assignees and will forever defend the aforesaid premises against the lawful claims and demands of all persons.

It is further agreed and understood that the said second party may pay any taxes or assessments levied against said premises or any other sum necessary to protect the rights of such party or its assignee, including insurance upon said premises, and to obtain the same from the first party with ten per cent interest and that no amount of payment is required hereby and that in case of a foreclosure being had on the