

Now therefore, If said parties of the first part shall pay the several sums of money mentioned in said note or obligation, including all due interest and premium, when they shall become due and payable, as aforesaid, and shall faithfully perform all of the said other agreements, then these presents shall be void; otherwise the same shall be and remain in full force and effect, and this mortgage may be immediately foreclosed and enforced for the unpaid amount of the principal of said note, the unpaid interest and premium, and the expenditures hereinafter named, made by said party of the second part, to pay said taxes, assessments and insurance, and to protect the title to said premises, together with the charges as provided by the By-Laws of the said Association, for the work, payment of said interest, premium, expenditures, and the payment of mortgages before their maturity, and one hundred and fifty dollars as attorney's fee for writing and upon this mortgage; also for foreclosing the same; all of which shall be a lien upon said premises and secured by this mortgage, and included in any decree of foreclosure and sale thereon, and all sums collected by said party of the second part shall be applied on the payment of said debt. And the said parties of the first part, for and in consideration, abovesaid, of the sum of one hundred dollars of said second part, and all benefits of the Homestead exemption law of the State of California. It is understood and agreed, by and between the parties hereto, that this entire contract, and each and every part hereof, is made and