

and affiliated companies; and the party of the first part hereby obligates and binds itself to keep in reserve an amount of gas equal to three (3) times the daily consumption of the party of the second its subsidiary and affiliated companies; that is to say, if the daily consumption of said party of the second part and its companies amounts to one hundred thousand (100,000) cubic feet per day, the party of the first part shall keep in reserve three hundred thousand (300,000) cubic feet of gas; and if the same shall amount to one million (1,000,000) cubic feet per day then the party of the first part shall keep on hand and in reserve three million (3,000,000) cubic feet of gas and so on, the amount of gas to be kept in reserve shall be estimated according to the average consumption of the preceding month.

(c) It is further understood and agreed on by and between the parties hereto, that a monthly statement under the terms and conditions of this contract shall be kept by the party of the second part and the party of the first part and furnished to each of the parties hereto without cost or expense, and when the total value of the gas furnished to the party of the second part its subsidiary and affiliated companies under the terms and conditions of this contract shall equal the actual cost of procuring constructing and putting down said pipe line and right of way and

* showing the daily consumption of the amount of gas used by the party of the second part its subsidiary and affiliated companies