

convey it and that the same circumstances would, as Trustees, will forever defend the title to the same to the said R.R. McRae, his heirs and assigns against the lawful claims of all persons whatsoever. But the above covenants and guaranties are made by me solely as Trustee and not otherwise. And I, Lou Watson, wife of the said Henry M. Watson, Trustee, for the consideration above stated do hereby release and discharge unto the said R.R. McRae of all and every right, claim or possibility, known in or to the above described land.

A. H. Adams one of the parties above named, for whom the above described land is held in trust by Henry M. Watson, do hereby agree to the foregoing and hereby joins in the same.

Witness our signatures this 31 day of October, 1907.

Henry M. Watson
Trustee.

Lou Watson

A. H. Adams

United States Bank

Western District. On this 4th day of November, 1907 before me, Belle Withman, a Notary Public, within and for the Western District of the Indian Territory, appeared in person Henry M. Watson, Trustee and A. H. Adams, personally well known as the persons whose names appear upon and within the foregoing deed of conveyance as the parties grantor, and stated that they had executed the same for the consideration and purchase therein mentioned and set forth,