

will, so it is well preserved. The party of the second part to have must to hold the premises for and clearing some of ground, if during Oct 27 1914, from state land, and as much longer as we or you is found or located in keeping from the them. As consideration of said grant and amount, the party of the second part agree to deliver to the party of the first part one tenth of the acreage of from the premises in which at the well without cost. As you informed us very well as well as said premises, the party of the first part is to have, upon demand, sufficient gas for domestic purposes, being enough, the amount for the all the gas from the well, to give the party of the second part of the party of the second part shall make any gas from any well including gas only, then the party of the first part shall receive it up to the well of $1000, and the gas amount to well gas or much more.

The party of the second part agree to have the well as is not to include any more than is reasonably necessary with the premises. The party of the second part further agree that we see no well is drilled for oil or gas within the gas from the state land, and as such and operations required under the grant and otherwise shall cease upon water, in writing being served by the party of the first part to where the party of the second part shall not from gas to gas to continue these grants and done in accordance with provisions of the premises by keeping in